PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

ACTS AT THE SAME TIME ON THE NERVES, THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS

This combined action gives it wonderful power to cure all diseases.

Why Are We Sick?

Because we allow the nerves to remain weakened and irritated, and these great organs to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are therefore forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.

By quieting and strengthening the nerves, and causing free action of the liver, bowels, and kidneys, and restoring their power to throw off disease.

Why suffer Bilious Pains and Aches? Why tormented with Piles, Constipation? Why frightened over Disordered Kidneys? Why endure nervous or sick headaches? Why have sleepless nights?

THE CONFEDERATE GOLD DOLLAR.

A Negro Boy's Discovery of a Coin Said To Be Worth $650.

A few days ago a negro boy was standing near a trash pile, and was engaged in running his toes through the debris. He noticed something bright in the pile, and when he picked it up found it to be a very small yellow coin. At first he thought it was copper, but as he fingered it his native sense told him it was too heavy for copper, so he at once conjectured that it was made of gold.

He had some business with Frank Walker, and while in his office showed him the piece of money. He asked the lawyer how much he would give him for it. The attorney, after eyeing it closely, thought it was a gold dollar, and as he was particularly anxious to get such a coin to wear on his watch chain, he offered the boy a dollar for it, which he gleefully accepted.

Mr. Walker gave the coin a careful examination, and became convinced that he had paid too much for it. He was in Colonel's Redwine's office, and took the coin out and exhibited it to the great financier. "What will you give me for it?" he asked. "I'll give you a dollar," was the reply. "And I'll give you a dollar and a quarter," interrupted a man who had come in to renew a note. "Done," exclaimed Mr. Walker. "Here's your money," was the quick answer. The buyer left the office with his coin, and the lawyer thought he had made a good bargain.

Hurrying off to a man that buys coins, the purchaser exhibited the piece. The dealer scrutinized it closely and said: "What will you take for it?" "What will you give?" After a little consideration the dealer said: "Will you take $25 for it?" The answer was: "No, but I'll take $30 for it." "It's a go; here's your money," and the happy man walked out of the office.

The coin which figured in these transactions is a Confederate gold dollar. A gentleman was talking yesterday to a reporter, and he said: "The worst sold man of the four was he who sold the coin for $30. If it be true that it is, as represented, a genuine Confederate gold dollar, it is worth $650. I am told that there are only six of those coins in existence. They are the only ones which were coined. They are worth $650 each."

The reporter came away convinced that of all the men who figured in this affair, the gentleman who gave this wonderful information was the worst sold of any. —Atlanta Constitution.

—"Did you ever go tobogganing, Mr. Winterwheat?"

"No, said the old man, "but I once stepped into the elevator well and fell down four stories in three-tenths of a second. That is fast enough for me; I'm getting too old for much excitement."

—A school inspector, finding a class hesitating over answering the question, "With what weapon did Sampson slay the Philistines!" and wishing to prompt them significantly tapped his own cheek, and asked: "what is this?"

The whole class instantly answered: "The jawbone of an ass."

—Hospital nurse: "Come and taste the patient's plum pudding, Dr. Jenkins. It's real elegant."

Dr. Jenkins: "Gracious! Is this provided by the hospital?"

Nurse: "Not much. It was sent up to case 103 by her friends, but, bless you, it isn't good for her so we kept it."

—A Glasgow draper, who was narrating his experience during his first visit to England, said he stepped into an Episcopal church in the middle of the service, just to see what they did. "I hadna been well seated," he said, "when the minister awa at the other end, cried out, 'Lord, have mercy on us all!' and then a' the folks aboot me cried, 'Lord preserve us all!' 'Mercy on us!' says I, 'Did ye never see a man frae Glasca afore?"

—"What was the biggest school of mackerel you ever saw?" asked a summer boarder of old Captain Gloster.

"The biggest school of mackerel I ever saw?" repeated the captain, shifting his quid and hitching up his trousers. "Well, ma'am, the biggest school of mackerel I ever saw was off the Banks, away back in '61. But, ma'am, that wasn't no school of mackerel. That was a university."

—The obliging visitor to show that he is really fond of children, and that the dear little ones are not annoying in the least, treats the youngest to a ride upon his knees.

"Trot, trot, trot! How do you like that, my boy? Is that nice?"

"Yes sir," replied the child; "but not so nice as on the real donkey—the one with four legs."

—The old ill-feeling existing between England and Scotland is often shown in the Scotch anecdotes.

An Englishman was once grumbling against the land o'cakes. Said he: "No man of taste would ever think of remaining any length of time in such a country as Scotland."

"Tastes differ," replied the Scotchman. "I'll take ye to a place ca'd Bannockburn, no far frae Stirling, where thretty thousand o' yer countrymen ha' been for 500 years, an' they've nae thocht o' leavin' yet."

—He fell from the fourth story window, striking on his head, and strange to say was picked up apparently lifeless.

"Who is the unfortunate man?" asked a passer-by.

"A hardware drummer," was the reply, "and he is dead. He fell from the fourth story window."

"A hardware drummer, and only fell from a fourth story window; then he can't be dead. Let me see if I can't revive him." The gentleman whispered in his ear: "What can you sell me ten casks of straight self-colored coil chain, three-eight inch, at?"

"Eight and a quarter cents, thirty days," said the dead drummer struggling to a sitting posture. "How'll you have 'em shipped?"

Fishes are not very common in deep water, and until lately, it was thought there were none, chiefly because of the immense pressure being one ton per square inch for every 1000 fathoms. As sunlight fails about 200 fathoms down, vegetable life also ceases, and as a consequence deep sea fishes are carnivorous. The most voracious often eat their own offspring, while others are nourished by animalculæ, which like a constant rain, settle down from the higher waters. Some are blind, some have ordinary eyes, others have phosphorescent protuberances to furnish them with light. Sir C. Wyville Thompson says that animals of all the marine invertebrate classes, and probably fishes also, exist all over the floor of the ocean. So far the greatest depth reached by a dredge in which fish were enclosed is 2900 fathoms; but the specimen thus obtained belongs to a species which seems to be abundant in upper strata of the Atlantic and Pacific, and was therefore most likely caught by the dredge in its ascent. The next greatest depth, viz., 2750 fathoms, must be accepted as one at which fishes undoubtedly do live the fish obtained at this depth of the Atlantic showing by its whole habit that it is a form

A NEVADAN in the East writes a resident of this town that there is being considerable pressure brought on Senator Stewart to resign his seat in the upper house of Congress and accept the Cabinet office of Secretary of Interior, under President-elect Harrison, provided the appointment is tendered him. He says the pressure is being brought on the Senator by representative Pacific Coast men, who feel assured that this section of the Union will be recognized by Mr. Harrison in the selection of his Cabinet, and also that Messrs. De Young, Swift, Estee and others prominently spoken of for the honor will gladly step aside and do all in their power for Nevada's faithful servant in the matter. The Senator, the writer adds, has stated positively his preference to remain where he is and accomplish certain work in behalf of his constituency and the Coast at large. But the question arises, could he not, as Secretary of the Interior, do equally as much, if not more, for Nevada and the Coast, and at the end of his term, as such an official, be returned to the Senate should he so desire? As matters look now, Senator Allison will be our next Secretary of the Treasury, and, with Senator Stewart as Secretary of the Interior, what more could the Pacific Coast desire?

HENRY W. GRADY of Georgia, in a speech delivered just before the close of the canvass, declared that if Cleveland was defeated the South "would be led through sorrows compared with which the woes of reconstruction will be as the falling dews of morning to the roaring flood." The records, however, says the Idaho Statesman, prove that capital is still flowing into the South as fast as ever, and that the outlook for that section is brighter than ever before. Mr. Grady is an interesting talker, but it is painfully evident that the mantle of Elijah has not fallen anywhere in his immediate vicinity.

THE total vote cast by the Northern States at the recent election was just about 8,000,000. Harrison's vote is 4,073,873 and Cleveland's vote is 3,605,678. Hence, the Republican vote in the North is 468,195 larger than the Democratic. In the Southern States Cleveland's vote is 1,920,757 and Harrison's is 1,353,396. The Democratic vote in the South is therefore 567,361 more than the Republican vote in a total of 3,274,153. President Cleveland's popular plurality, with all the States heard from, is placed at 98,185.

THE Silver State says that the Pittsburg manufacturers sent $40,000 to Indiana to convince the "Hoosiers" that any reduction of taxation would reduce wages, but that paper has never had a word to say about the $10,000 contributed by the President to convince the people that a tariff is a tax.

A BOSTON Democratic organ sadly observes that the recent Republican victory in that city was due to "religious excitement." It is a well-known fact, says a contemporary, that excitement of a religious character is always disastrous to Democratic hopes and calculations.

THE Senate of South Carolina has passed a bill making it a misdemeanor, punishable by dismissal for any member of the Legislature to accept a free pass from any railroad.

WE return thanks to Senator Stewart for important public documents.

John Bright Improving—A Town Destroyed by Fire—Five Persons Drowned—Etc.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

Manufacturing Town Burned.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Dec. 26.—Last night a fire burned over an area of twelve acres of buildings surrounding the one in which the fire started. They were all wooden shells, and it seemed as if everywhere a spark fell a fire started. In fifteen minutes from the time the alarm was rung the entire business portion was a sea of flame. Assistance was summoned from Lynn, Salem and Swampscott, and these places quickly reported. It is estimated that the loss is between $500,000 and $600,000. The entire shoe manufacturing district, the principal business of the town, was burned to the ground, and fully sixty buildings were consumed. The flames spread with such rapidity that scarcely anything was saved, and the tenants residing in dwelling houses were completely cleaned out. The great shoe factories, sheds, fruit stands and small tenement houses were consumed with a rapidity that seemed as if the entire town was doomed. By this time help arrived, and the city was flooded with strangers from all the surrounding towns. At 3 o'clock the fire was under control. This stolid old burg, in June, 1877, was visited by a fire which swept over nearly the same district. During the progress of the present fire several explosions occurred. Fully 1,000 workmen are thrown out of employment. The number of buildings consumed is estimated at between fifty and sixty.

A Genuine Death Trap.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 26.—A fatal accident has just occurred on Fifteenth street, between Fremont and Court place, which resulted in the instant death of four men and mortally wounding two others. The Denver Gas Company has a hundred men employed excavating a ditch six feet deep, along the side of and underneath the track of the cable car line, when suddenly the track for the entire block fell, crushing the life out of and imprisoning the men underneath. Men were immediately set to work removing the fallen track, and four dead and two badly wounded have just been removed. The other men escaped with more or less bruises. It is not yet known whether any more are underneath the track or not. The names of the dead and wounded have not yet been ascertained.

Drowned at the Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—A drowning accident occurred in the bay off Visitation Valley, seven miles south of this city, yesterday. Seven persons were out on a pleasure trip in a small sail boat when the boat capsized and the mast become fast in the mud. Assistance could not be rendered for half an honr, and by that time the persons who were clinging to the upturned boat were exhausted, and just as a rescuing party were nearing them a large wave swept them from the boat. The only one who rose to the surface was Frank Stump, and he was rescued. The others were all drowned. The names of the victims are Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stump, Andrew and Katie Zickel, Matthew Cox and Mary Morales—all relatives.

Further Particulars.

WASHINGTON, Dec, 26.—The War Department has received additional particulars concerning the arrest of General Stanley, commanding the Department of Texas, but has issued no instructions to him regarding his future action. The question of his defense before a Civil Court has been referred to the Attorney-General.

Commodore Walker has received a telegram from Captain Heyerman, commanding the Yantic, dated at Santiago de Cuba, December 25th, saying that after coaling he will return to Port au Prince. Nothing was said about the Galena.

A Moral Leper.

ESCANOBA, Mich., Dec. 26.—The Mirror makes public the statement that W. W. Mulliken, an old and prominent physician, has been habitually debauching young girls, some of them as young as ten years. The victims in all are said to number forty. His misdeeds were discovered several times, but were hushed up to avoid scandal, but the matter at last became notorious. Mulliken was arrested and bailed, but forfeited his bail and skipped.

Another Polygamist Pardoned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The President has granted a pardon to Bishop A. A. Kimball, convicted in the First District Court of Utah of adultery and sentenced to eight months' imprisonment. The President's action is based upon representations that the prisoner is in the advanced stages of consumption and would not long survive in his present surroundings.

Their Work Interrupted.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—An explosion in a small store on the South Side this morning wrecked and set fire to the building. Two supposed burglars were in the building at the time. One, Phillippi Paiolo, escaped dangerously burned, and the remains of the other were found in the ruins later and have not been identified.

Death of an Italian Statesman.

NAPLES, Dec. 26.—Signor Mancini, formerly Minister of Foreign Affairs, is dead; aged 73 years.

Alien Laborers, Paupers and Insane.

DETROIT, Dec. 26.—Congressman Ford's Immigration Committee heard evidence to-day. It was to the effect that many Canadians are in the habit of working in Michigan during the lumbering season and returning to Canada at its close. Also, that many alien paupers and insane from Canada and Europe have made their way across the line and had to be supported here.

Bright Improving—A Strike.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—John Bright is very much improved.

All the cotton operatives are on a strike, and the masters threaten a general lockout. A prolonged struggle is expected, as the operators are well supplied with money.

"EXTRA STAR"

KEROSENE!

Best and Safest Oil Manufactured.

Strictly Water White. Guaranteed 150° fire test.

TOO MUCH CARE CANNOT BE TAKEN when purchasing Coal Oil, to obtain an article that will be perfectly safe and of good burning quality. The fact is now generally recognized that our "STAR" and "EXLRA STAR" Oils are the safest and best illuminating oils ever offered, being superior in fire test and burning quality to all others. These oils are remarkably uniform, which is a decided advantage to the consumer. They will cost no more than inferior brands that are being put on the market branded "High Fire Test" but which are really only 105° to 115°, rendering them very unsafe oils for family use. We guarantee the "EXTRA STAR" better in every respect than the Elaine, Dewners, or any of the fancy brands sold at higher prices. We have had great difficulty in obtaining a sufficient supply to meet the large and increasing demand for our brands. A full supply, however, has just arrived, and we are now in condition to fill orders promptly.

Give these oils a trial and you will use no others. We quote "Star" Oil at 22c per gal., lots to suit; "Extra Star" at 27c per gal., lots to suit.

A COOL INTERVIEW.

Wells-Fargo's Express Car Robbed While the Train was Moving.

Last Monday evening, as the Eastbound overland train was approaching Clipper Gap, and was making slow time up a steep grade, Wells-Fargo's express car was boarded by two highwaymen, both of whom daringly caught hold of the hand-rail on opposite sides of the express car, and, thrusting their pistols through the glass doors, called on the messenger (Robert Johnson) and his assistant to "open up" and let them in. Both of the expressmen were engaged in calling off and checking the large quantity of Christmas goods with which the car was nearly filled, Johnson being at his desk, and not three feet from the muzzle of the robber's pistol on the side where he stood. Believing that instant death would be the price of a refusal to comply with the robbers' orders, both doors were slid back and the two entered, meantime keeping the expressmen covered with their six-shooters. Johnson was then compelled to open the safe, which was searched for money and valuables, but it is understood that, besides quite a large number of Louisiana Lottery tickets being sent to Nevada City, Grass Valley, Colfax, Dutch Flat, Truckee, and nearly all the towns in Western Nevada, and a few small Christmas packages, little of value was taken. Discovering that the expressmen had an extra fine lunch, which they intended to discuss during the night, one of the road-agents remarked that, as it might be some time before they (the robbers) would have a chance to eat, he guessed they would have to take it, which they did. After securing their plunder they pulled the bell-rope, which caused a still slower rate of speed, and dropped from the car and disappeared in the darkness. With the exception of a handkerchief around the chin of one of the thieves, neither was masked, and Johnson is sure he would readily recognize one of them.

A special to the Gazette this afternoon says: The country is being scoured for the robbers who plundered the overland train Monday night, but no trace of them is discovered yet. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s representatives report the loss at $56,000. The robbers refused to take a coin package containing $10,500, saying it was too heavy to carry.

COUNTERFEIT DOLLARS.

The Mysterious Disappearance of Two Men Supposed to be the Guilty Parties.

About four months ago C. S. Martin rented to two strangers a house on Lake street for two months, the men paying the rent in advance. When the time was up they vacated the place and mysteriously disappeared. Last week the house was rented to Fred Gladding, and when he moved in he found that the former occupants had left a stove, which, upon examination, proved to have what has the appearance of having been a retort made of fire-brick, and quite a quantity of melted white metal. About the time they were occupying the house the town was flooded with counterfeit dollars, and the supposition is that they were the guilty parties. The strangest thing about it is that neither Martin nor the neighbors knew anything of the men—who they were or what they looked like. Constable Upson is on the trail, and hopes soon to run them down.

PETTY THIEVES.

They Rob Houses and Clotheslines.

On Christmas Eve the till of the Roma Hotel, on the east side of Virginia street was robbed of about $20 while the barkeeper was temporarily absent.

About the same time a thief entered the kitchen of Mrs. J. H. Kinkead's residence, but was frightened away before he had secured anything of value, half a bottle of cooking brandy being the only article missed.

J. T. Burge, who lives in a cabin near the V. & T. bridge, yesterday discovered in a dry goods box that was sitting by his house about fifty pieces of goods, evidently stolen from a clothesline, as they were all clean, but not ironed. Among the lot were many towels and napkins, besides some chair and lounge tidies, on some of which figures of animals had been worked. Mr. Burge is anxious for the owner to "prove property and take it away."

CHRISTMAS.

How the Day Was Spent in Reno

Christmas day opened sunshiny and pleasant, and it was plain to be seen early in the morning that Reno proposed to take a holiday, for nearly all the stores and banks were closed and the streets crowded until about noon, when they seemed deserted, showing that the populace had gone to their respective homes to enjoy themselves in their own quiet way. The evening before large crowds assembled at the various churches where Xmas trees were had to witness the pleasure of the little folks as their names were called out and they received from their friends some token of remembrance. There were no drunks to mar the pleasure of the day and everything went merry.

Justice Court.

There were two drunks pulled last night, one vag, and two boys for malicious mischief. The boys were brought up before Judge Young this morning and one of them fined $10, and the other was ordered to appear this evening at 6 o'clock for sentence. They were arrested for throwing stones at passers-by and breaking out windows. Judge Young proposes to make an example of the next boy that is brought before him on such a charge, and it will be well for the youngsters to look where they hurl stones in the future.

Grand Ball.

To be given by Nevada Lodge No. 7, Daughters of Rebekah, at Armory Hall, January 10, 1889, in conjunction with the following Odd Fellow's Lodges: Washoe No. 8, Truckee No. 14, Reno No. 19 and Patriarch Militant Nc. 2, Rebekah to be in full uniform.

Powning, S. J. Bryant, M. E. Ward, Dan Huffaker, Allen C. Bragg, James Mayberry, Thomas Barnett, D. C. Wheeler, G. W. Mapes, George Alt, R. H. Kinney, John Belz, G. H. Taylor, J. N. Evans, S. Arnstein, R. L. Fulton, Wm. Donaldson, C. W. Booton, P. N. Marker, M. Nathan, A. J. Pedroli, D. Powell and J. Souchereau.

MRS. M'DONALD'S VINDICATION.

The Plot Against Her Exposed—Perjury and Fraud—Senator Stewart's Property—Mineral Specimens for London.

Since Mrs. R. H. McDonald, Jr., has presented affidavits showing that the testimony against her in the divorce case was a tissue of perjury, there has been a decided change of opinion among her acquaintances. I believe that Mrs. McDonald's Nevada friends, who knew her as Belle Gardner, have believed in her innocence all the time. I for one have done so, and will be glad to see her defeat the entire McDonald gang.

One day during the trial, after Mrs. McDonald testified that her home was in Carson before her marriage, and that her parents lived there still, the Uriah Heep of a lawyer on the opposite side, at her husband's whispered suggestion, sneeringly asked why her father was not present to help her in her troubles, unless it was true that he had lost confidence in her; and why her friends left her without a word of good will or encouragement, unless they were convinced that her husband's accusations were just.

Mrs. McDonald, with tears in her eyes, replied that her father was at the bedside of her brother, who had been run over by a train and was supposed to be in a dying condition. As for her friends, she said that none of them had fallen away, except some who did not deserve

THE NAME OF FRIEND,

But that they were deterred from coming to the Court-room to see her because it was known that the case was being tried behind closed doors, and they were not sure of a chance to offer their sympathies even if they did come.

The next morning I made an extra effort and went to the City Hall, where the trial was going on, and when Mrs. McDonald arrived I went up to her, and, shaking her heartily by the hand, told her she had my best wishes for success; that I did not believe the charges against her, and that I hoped to see her triumph over all her foes.

McDonald and his lawyer were sitting within three feet of where we stood and scowled darkly when they heard what was said.

Other Nevada people who heard of the malicious words of the lawyer for the plaintiff, took occasion to call upon Mrs. McDonald and assure her of their sympathy and cordial support.

Every person with a desire for fair play will be pleased to see Mrs. McDonald rescue her fair fame from the ignominy to which the perjurers in this case have tried to consign it.

Several portions of a human skeleton were exhumed recently by some workmen engaged in excavating for a sewer on Senator W. M. Stewart's property at the foot of Chestnut street, Alameda. The excavation is made in a shell mound, and the skeleton is undoubtedly that of an aboriginal inhabitant of this peninsula. The skull was over a quarter of an inch in thickness. The Senator's property in Alameda is said to be worth a great many thousand dollars.

California is going to establish a permanent exposition in London. I believe if Nevada should offer to contribute a cabinet of mineral specimens it would be gladly accepted. It would certainly be a good opportunity for advertising the principal industry of the State. Wells Drury.

San Francisco, Dec. 21, 1888.

THE NEXT ATTRACTION.

Lydia Thompson, with a Company of Fifty, Coming.

The New York Clipper of October 18th, says: Lydia Thompson made her American reappearance, after an absence of several years, at the Star Theater Monday night, Oct. 15th, to a large and very cordial audience. She was welcomed with heartiness, and acted with her old-time earnestness. Her opening burlesque was "Penelope." It was elegantly costumed, and had the added advantage of new and rich scenery from the brush of D. B. Hughes. J. B. Radcliffe, Marie Williams and Lilly Allison made their American reappearance in the cast, and all were successful. Miss Williams, in particular, winning praise. Edward Solomon's music was graceful and lively throughout. Many American debuts were made by the minor members of the troupe, and next week, in a more extended review of the performance, we will give an accurate list of the newcomers. To appear at McKisick's Opera House, Thursday evening, January 3d.

Meat Market.

Following are the rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers in the San Francisco market:

Lamb—Quotable at 9@10c per pound.

Pork—Live hogs, on foot, grain fed, 6@6¼c; soft, 5¾@6c; dressed hogs, 8½@9c per pound.

If your face is marked with blotches,
And eruptions mar your skin,
You may bet your bottom dollar
There is something wrong within.
'Tis the blood. To purify it
There is nothing half so good,
As the G. M. D. is—try it!
To be clearly understood

I will explain that G. M. D. means "Golden Medical Discovery" (Dr. Pierce's), the popular remedy for debility, lung troubles and weak, impoverished blood, which, like scrofula, shows its presence in the system in blotches, eruptions and pimples.

Perfection is attained in Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Portland, Oregon, July 31.

While I was in Tillamook last winter I was affected in my back and kidneys so that it was almost impossible for me to reach Portland. When I got here I was induced to try the Oregon Kidney Tea. I drank at my meals the tea made from it, and it has effected a radical cure. I can highly recommend it to all who are afflicted as I was. E. COHN. Sold by William Pinniger.

Dutard's Specific is an absolute cure for all eruptive diseases of the skin, such as Salt Rheum, Barbers Itc, Ring Worm, Scald Head and all itching or inflamed conditions of the skin, whether arising from disease or exposure. It is guaranteed in every case. Sold by William Pinniger.

IN MEMORIUM.

Action of the Good Templars on the Death of Miss Ida Kline.

At the regular meeting of Fidelity Lodge, No. 4, I. O. G. T., held on Friday evening, December 21, 1888, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our fraternal circle our late sister, Ida Kline; and

Whereas, It is but just that a fitting recognition of her many virtues should be had, therefore, be it

Resolved, By Fidelity Lodge, No. 4, Independent Order of Good Templars, that, while we bow with humble submission to the will of God, we do not the less mourn for our sister who has been taken from us.

Resolved, That by the death of Ida M. Kline this Lodge laments the loss of a sister who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed of our fraternity; an active member of this society, a friend and companion, who was dear to us all.

Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of this Lodge be extended to her family in their deep affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Lodge, and that a copy be transmitted to the family of our deceased sister, and to each of the daily newspapers of Reno.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottels free at Hodkinson & Co. Large Bottles $1.

A fatal disease has appeared among the horses of Dry Creek, San Louis Obispo, Cal.

Thousands of Dollars

Are spent every year by the people of this State for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases, when we know that if they would only invest $1 in Santa Abie, the new California discovery for consumption and kindred complaints, they would find relief. It is recommended by ministers, physicians and public speakers of the Golden State. Sold and guaranteed by Osburn & Shoemaker at $1 a bottle. Three for $5.50. The most stubborn case of catarrh will speedily succumb to California Cat-R Cure. Six months' treatment for $1. By mail $1.10.

Miss Emma Holman, was fearfully injured by a neighbor's dog at Albany, Or., Saturday.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Att., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malaria Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequaled. Price 50c. and $1. at S. J. Hodkinson's.

All the Puget Sound sawmills will remain closed during holiday week.

An eminent physician says: A healthy liver secretes from two to three pounds of bile every twenty four hours and disposes of this secretion where it will do the most good. Now if the liver is out of order, the whole system is in trouble, the spirits are depressed, the mind is not clear, and a person whose liver is not performing its duty is very soon unfitted for regular business. Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic rouses the torpid liver and enables it to perform its proper functions, thereby regulating the whole system. Sold by William Pinniger.

Woman's most faithful friend is Oregon Kidney Tea. It is specially adapted to complaints peculiar to delicate systems, and works like magic without leaving any unpleasant after effects. Oregon Kidney Tea is a purely vegetable preparation and is unequalled in Kidney and Urinary complaints. Sold by William Pinniger.

Physicians prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla in cases of scrofula, and in every form of chronic disease, because this medicine is safer to take, and is more highly concentrated than any other preparation. It can always be depended upon as an effective blood purifier.

AYER'S PILLS

CURE HEADACHE.

Headaches are usually induced by costiveness, indigestion, foul stomach, or other derangements of the digestive system, and may be easily cured by the use of Ayer's Pills. Mrs. Mary A. Scott, Portland, Me., writes: "I had suffered dreadfully from Sick Headache, and thought myself incurable. Disorder of the stomach caused it. Ayer's Pills cured me entirely."

CURE BILIOUSNESS.

John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebr., writes: 'I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice. I was so dangerously ill, that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor. I feel certain that I owe my recovery to your invaluable Pills."

CURE INDIGESTION.

Ayer's Pills act directly on the digestive and assimilative organs, influencing healthful action, imparting strength, and eradicating disease. G. W. Mooney, Walla Walla, W. T., writes: "I have suffered from Dyspepsia and Liver troubles for years past. I found no permanent relief, until I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, which have effected a complete cure."

CURE RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism is among the most painful of the disorders arising from vitiated blood and derangement of the digestive and biliary organs. Ayer's Pills relieve and cure Rheumatism when other remedies fail. S. M. Spencer, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I was confined to my bed, with Rheumatism, three months, but, after using a few boxes of Ayer's Pills, became a well man."

CURE GOUT.

S. Lansing, Yonkers, N. Y., writes: "Recommended to me as a cure for chronic Costiveness, Ayer's Pills have relieved me not only from that trouble, but also from Gout. If every victim of the disease would heed only three words of mine, I could banish Gout from the land. Those words would be, 'Try Ayer's Pills.'"

CURE PILES.

Piles are induced by habitual constipation, debility, indigestion, or a morbid condition of the liver. A cure is best effected by the use of Ayer's Pills. John Lazarus, St. John, N. B., writes: "I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only cured me of that disagreeable disorder, but gave me new life and health."

SOME BIG CLOTHING BILLS.

WHAT IT COSTS AN AMERICAN SWELL TO HAVE A LONDON TAILOR.

A Good Many of Them Forget to Pay Their Bills—Heavy Judgments that Have Not Been Collected—Why Newport Is Not the Healthiest Place in the World for Some of Our "Heavy Swells."

(Copyright 1888.)

One can undoubtedly dress well in London at a lower cost than in New York, but swell clothing means swollen prices all over the world. The following bill against Mr. Berry Wall, procured from the American attorneys of a London tradesman, is certainly not remarkable on account of low prices:

To pair of leather top boots.....£4 17s. 6d.
To engraving name on set of hollow long bootees.....3s. 6d.
To blue doeskin riding trousers.....£3 3s.

Young Mr. Appleton, who, by the way, is a son of the well known publisher, is billed by another tradesman for two dozen silk scarfs at 16s, 10d., and for a dozen cambric handkerchiefs with monogram, 6s. 12d.

No young swell could keep his inflation without going to London for his clothes. But many of them forget that the tailor is worthy of his hire and they return to America without a receipted bill. And this is largely the fault of the tailor's business methods. Your London tradesman would regard with suspicion and awe a man who offered to pay cash for his clothing. But he would reject your patronage unless you were properly introduced. The American swell has an honest intention to pay for his clothes when he buys them, but by the time the bill is presented he is short of money. Such was the case with Mr. Dick Peters, a very dead boy and the crown prince under Berry Wall, who was arrested the other day at Newport in the very act of changing his clothing for the sixth time.

Mr. Peters was naturally in great distress. He begged the Sheriff to let him go, but that was out of the question, unless the bill, which had been standing on the books of a noted London tailor for several years, was paid, together with the expenses of collection. Mr. Peters did not have the money handy, but he sent messengers around to some of his friends and finally secured Mr. Louis Lorillard as his bondsman.

When the News of Mr. Peter's misfortune got abroad among the swells and clubmen there was an indication of a general desire to take to the woods. Within two days a large contingent had cut short their stay and were on their way out of Rhode Island. The imminent danger of arrest had overcome the attraction offered by the fair hostesses of Newport society.

It is a matter of wonder that the swell and club man, unless he has also plenty of money, dares to go to Newport at all. The law as to the collection of debts is such in Rhode Island as to make it possible for any creditors to put the haughtist of the four hundred into durance vile unles he pays up. In New York the creditor must bring suit first and find the debtor afterward. In Rhode Island he arrests the debtor and then sues him.

The allurements of Newport to the society swell, who must be amused and have his tastes gratified at the expense of somebody, are usually great enough to overcome his fear of the law. He takes care not to advertise his presence in the homes of his creditors and trusts to luck. But the creditors have awakened to his game, and every year scores of clubmen and swells are taken into custody. The result is that, unless the debtors' law in Newport is changed, its pre-eminence as a society resort will be lost.

It came to me some time ago that the amount of swindling done by swell Americans in Europe was ruining the reputation of all American tourists and, that unless these frauds were openly repudiated by the people, the name American would degenerate into a term of reproach in the minds of honest European tradesmen. I considered the matter well worth investigating, and opened a correspondence with some prominent English solicitors. A few days ago I received from them a detailed account of the bills contracted by Americans with reputable English tradesmen, together with copies of the proceedings begun for their collection.

As many of these had been continued in this country, it was an easy matter to verify them. I had a long talk also with the head of the collection department in Sheriff Grant's office, and learned further interesting details. From these various sources I am able to make known the following curious facts:

The young swell of to-day considers his education neglected unless he can acquaint himself, by personal inspection, with the fall life of European society, especially that of England. His papa and mamma assenting, he starts on his tour at an early age. His pockets are full of money, or its equivalent, and the world is before him. If he is a real swell, one who will later develop into a rounder, and not a mere every-day American whose society training has led him to assume the title of swell, he will grow ashamed of his clothes as soon as he sets foot on English soil. Having presented his letters of introduction, he intimates to one of his new friends that he would like to visit a first class English tailor.

All American swells, from Berry Wall down, patronize the house of Poole & Co., which has lions and unicorns and other creatures enough on its letter heads to start any number of small fry concerns in the heraldry business. The youthful American is introduced to this company and orders a dozen or more suits of clothes of the finest material, lined with silks and satins. He offers to pay for these, but his English friend stops him. It is not the custom to pay cash at Poole & Co.'s In fact, it is something quite unheard of. Poole & Co. won't sell at all to any person not properly introduced to them, and such introduction is sufficient guarantee for payment. The purchaser does not ever receive a bill before six months have elapsed.

He may also fit himself out with linen, and even boots and shoes at this store, or he may seek out the leading firms in those particular lines and give his orders there. Beal and Inman as haberdashers, and Peal & Co. as bootmakers have the same rank as Poole & Co., and do business in the same fashion. All three supply the Prince of Wales, the dukes and the lesser nobles of England.

The intention of the swell on his first trip is undoubtedly to pay honestly. Six months having elapsed, a bill is sent to his London lodgings. He is no longer there, nor is his address known. He may be at Paris learning the refinements of a fast life, or he may be bucking the tiger at Monaco. At the end of a year no tidings having reached the tradesman, the bills are forwarded to the American lawyers who represent them, for collection. By this time the young swell is no longer so anxious to settle. His expenses have been heavy and he has overdrawn his account, especially if his gambling ventures have been unfortunate, as they usually are.

The experience of the American collectors has been that it takes six months to locate the young man after his return from Europe. Now he is at Newport, then at Atlantic City, and again somewhere else. The round of pleasures is unceasing and the real swell must travel a great deal during the summer and autumn months to take in all the country resorts of society.

In the cases of the older society men whose names appear on the books of the English tradesmen, and who cannot be induced to pay their debts, some were young when the bills were contracted and some did not bother to consider them. They wanted the articles and they got them, and that was as far as they cared to go.

Having made certain of the debtor's address, the collectors write him. As a rule there is no response or else it is a polite invitation to go to the devil, as he does not want to be bothered with a vulgar tradesman. Then suit is begun, and a Deputy Sheriff goes around to collect in person. But the swell is up to snuff and the servant who tends the door never lets anybody inside the house who is not personally known to him.

The attempt to catch him at his club is equally futile and, after a heartrending experience in watching the door, or haunting the usual resorts, the Sheriff gives up in despair and returns the bill unsatisfied. Frequently the waiters at Delmonico's have been bribed to point out to the deputy some swell who frequented the restaurant. Sometimes that has worked and sometimes it hasn't.

The attempt to follow up American debtors in that way is of comparatively recent origin. When Poole died he left only a small fortune, and 20,000 pounds in bills against Americans. That aroused his executors to the necessity of stirring up things on this side of the water. But the bills were old and when the attempt was made to collect them the high-toned lovers of English-made clothes pleaded the Statute of Limitations and thus avoided payment. Among the gentlemen who have allowed their names to be marked in that way, or who have allowed judgments to be taken against them, these are furnished by the English lawyers:

D. B. Grant, father of Adele Grant.
D. Stuart Grant, brother of Adele Grant.
James Keene, the once famous wall street broker who was knocked out by Jay Gould.
C. T. Philip, and Philip J. Tillinghast.
Major C. Moran.
Walter S. Appleton, son of the publisher.
Charles Marshal Lamson, a scion of one of our best families.
Henry Tiffany, a member of half a dozen clubs.
Major W. C. Barney, whose title has not yet been proved.

Others who are perhaps not so well known to the world at large are: Robert N. Latham, W. H. Paine, Jr. F. Palmer Fitts, Henry McVicker, son of the late Commodore of the New York Yacht Club; C. K. Alburtis, Francis Gallatin and Rufus K. Allerton.

E. Berry Wall figures among the list in various matters. The above names are practically all New Yorkers, but New York does not stand alone. Eugene Tobler, who is said to represent the Rothschilds in New Orleans, is one of the prominent outsiders. Charles and Henry Ludlam, two well known Baltimore swells; Rustem Effendi, once secretary to the Turkish Legation at Washington, the Rev. J. J. Kane, a relative of the explorer and a chaplain in the United States Navy; Elliott and Thomas B. Johnstone of Baltimore, Charles K. Landis, of New Jersey, Clayton E. Newbold of Philadelphia, Gen. D. Imboden, of Va., are others.

The amounts these gentlemen stand indebted for vary from fifty to five hundred pounds. The most of them are wealthy and it seems strange that they should repudiate their honest debts. The only explanation I have been able to get is, that their tastes being of the extravagant order, even princely revenues do not leave them any surplus.

Every club of social standing in the large cities, excepting the Somerset of Boston, is said to have furnished a number of these debtors. There addresses are scrupulously concealed. The Union Club of New York is said to lead the rest with the Maryland of Baltimore a good second.

JOHN HOE.

THE PARADISE CLUB.

Where a Few Choice Spirits of the Rod and Gun Fraternity Intend To Enjoy Themselves.

The New York professional man is running to shooting and fishing this season more than ever. More than fifty gun and rod clubs have been formed, and the enthusiasm is still unabated. A peculiarity of the new clubs is the wealth and position of the members. Formerly the gun clubs of New York were composed of clerks and yough business men who were satisfied with a small and inexpensive club-room. The new ones start out with a handsome capital, which they invest in some landed estate. Over thirty such properties lie within a hundred miles of New York City; more than this number are scattered over the country from as far north as the upper Ottawa in Canada to the Everglades in Florida. The lastest and one of the most powerful organizations is the Paradise Fin and Feather Club, which was founded this week by Judge Henry A. Gildersleeve, distinguished alike as jurist and marksman. His description of the society is unique. "We have one magiserate in myself, one actor in J. K. Emmett, one dog in Plinlimmon, the prize St. Bernard, one theatrical manager in J. Charles Davis, one capitalist in Birket Clarke, one senator in Judge Edmunds, one gentleman, one poet, one playwright, one novelist, one politician, one clergyman, one doctor one crank, one dentist, one opera-singer, and one broker. This makes a fine assortment. When we have secured a pugilist, a pedestrian and a bank cashier, all the intellectual professions will be represented." The Paradise Club has bought from the Canadian Government a vast tract of land and water, near the Lac des Grandes Isles in Upper Canada. It is still virgin forest and wilderness, and abounds in game of all sorts.

How Sunflowers Absorb Malaria.

A recent observer of sunflowers attributes their anti-malarial action to their absorption of water from the soil, as well as to their accredited properties of absorbing malarial germs, and emitting much oxygen. During June, 1885, a quarter of an acre of sunflowers exhaled in the form of vapor an average of sixty-five gallons of water daily.
